

Johnny Misley
Director, Technical Leadership

Johnny currently works as the Director of Technical Leadership for Own the Podium (OTP). Prior to his new role Johnny served OTP as a High Performance consultant to summer team sports for Own the Podium (OTP).

Johnny comes from the sport of ice hockey where he has worked for 25 years as a player, coach, and administrator at the club, provincial, national and international levels. For 12 years Johnny served Hockey Canada as the Director of Hockey Development (1998-2002) and was later promoted to Executive Vice President of Hockey Operations (2002-2010). While serving as the High Performance programming lead for Canada's National Men's, Women's and Sledge Hockey Teams, Johnny was a part of the management group of 14 gold medal teams which includes five Olympic Gold Medals and one Paralympic Gold medal from the 2002, 2006 and 2010 Winter Olympic Games.

Johnny has served on numerous International and National sport committees and boards and is still active in his community as a youth level coach, mentor and instructor. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Physical Education (Coaching Sciences) and a Master's degree in Human Kinetics (Sport Management) from the University of British Columbia. Is a NCCP Level IV graduate of the National Coaching Institute in Victoria, BC. Was inducted as a team member of the Men's 2002 Olympic Gold Medal Team into the BC Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. Johnny currently lives with his family in Calgary, Alberta.